Rare-Map
G4360
1849
.W5X

S. Ex. N°47. Part 2nd 1st Sess. 31st Con.

SKETCH OF THE ROUTE of CAPT. WARNER'S EXPLORING PARTY in the SACRAMENTO VALLEY AND SIERRA NEVADA.

During the Months of August, September, and October 1849

BY

R. S. Williamson, Lieut. Top. Engrs.
Assistant to Capt. Warner

Note. The line marked thus ———— shows the Route of the Party — the numbers along that line, the numbers of the Camps.

Scale of Statute Miles

122°30 122° 121°30' 121° 120°30' 120°

42°30 42° 41°30 41° 40°30 40° 39°30 39° 38°30 38°

Mountains as far as the eye can reach

Warner's North Pass

Low Mountains, Pine Timber

GOOSE LAKE

Capt Warner killed by Indians, Sept. 26th 1849.

Oregon Trail from the U.S.

Lassitus Trail

Sierra Nevada 6000 feet high

Eastern ridge of the Sierra Nevada 6000 to 7000 feet high

Oregon Trail from California

Pit River

Mountainous Country thickly interspersed with round valleys

Western ridge of the Sierra Nevada 5000 to 6000 ft. high

Col. Casey's Camp

Deer Creek

Mill Creek

Dry Creek

Lassins

Base of the Sierra Nevada

SACRAMENTO RIVER

Stone Creek

Potter's

Little Butte Cr

Butte Creek

Chace's or Neill's

Williams

Three Buttes

Feather River

Yuba River

Two Rancherias

Pond

Hole of Water

French Charley's

Hoch Farm

Bear Creek

Johnson's

Nicholas'

Water Holes

Water Spring

Cache Creek

Paddy Clark's Gordon's

FREMONT

VERNON

SACRAMENTO CITY

American Fork

Sutter's Fort

SUTTER CITY

Puta Creek

Woolfskill

Vaca's

Berry's

Suisun Rancho

BENICIA

MARTINEZ

NEW YORK

SUISUN BAY

BAY OF SAN PABLO

BAY OF S. FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO

Monte Diabolo 3960 feet high